Deputy Bríd Smith,
Dáil Éireann,
Leinster House, Kildare
Street, Dublin 2.

Dáil Question No: 126

To ask the Minister for Transport the position of the Dublin Airport Authority in relation to negotiations with taxi driver representative associations; if the authority has a position of refusing to recognise or consult representative associations of drivers who work in the airport; if so, if such a stance is compatible with Government policy on the rights of workers to be represented by trade unions and representative organisations; and if he will make a statement on the matter.

Dear Deputy Smith,

Thank you for your query.

daa will continue to engage with taxi driver representative associations on all operational issues of concern to taxi drivers at Dublin Airport as it has done in recent years.

daa formally recognises trade unions who represent its employees. Taxi drivers are not daa employees, however we do engage with their representative associations on operational matters. daa deals with individual taxi driver issues on an individual basis. Nonetheless, we have bi-monthly engagement with representative associations for taxi drivers and welcome any queries, concerns and feedback at these discussions.

Kind regards,
